

A stay has been granted by the honorable South Carolina Court of Appeals. And also evidence of my hardship of taking care of my mother who had a stroke and lives with me. I am her caretaker and a single mother of my children.

The honorable court of South Carolina court of Appeals has the power to preserve the status quo. The appeals courts power under SCRCP 629 to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo. is not limited by the lower courts rulings.

The appeals court can and should exercise this authority to waive bond requirement ensuring the appellants appeal proceeds on the merits.

A lack of proper service means that the court had no authority over me making a bond requirement improper and impractical.

The bond creates a manifest of injustice and an abuse of discretion.

Prayer for relief

Wherefore Miranda Mitchum respectfully requests that this honorable court.

issue an order immediately waiving the bond pending appeal of this matter.

Grant relief as the court may deem just and proper thank you god bless
