To whom it may concern at the South Carolina Court of Appeals:

In response to the Order dated today (titled “1st Ext),” we would submit the attached Order dated June 20, 2025 (titled 2nd Ext) holding appellant will not be granted any additional extensions “absent extraordinary circumstances.” We would respectfully request an explanation, as we are unaware of the substance of any contact appellant has had with the Court or the undersigned since appellant’s former counsel provided proof of service of the motion to withdraw as counsel on August 8, 2025.

Since that date, we have only received a letter from the Court dated October 1, 2025 confirming receipt of a correspondence from appellant dated September 26, 2025 and stating the requirement for a motion. Again, appellant did not copy the undersigned with this letter or any other communications to the Court since August 8, 2025, when he was still represented by counsel.

To any extent necessary, the undersigned, as counsel for respondent, will print this email communication and deliver to the pro se appellant, who has not registered an email address with this court.
