

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Robert Jay Lagroon, Appellant,

v.

Heather Hite Stone, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2012-206746

ORDER

On September 12, 2013, this Court required Appellant to provide proof within ten days that the transcripts had been ordered from the correct court reporters. This Court warned that the failure to provide sufficient proof would result in the dismissal of this appeal. This Court has received several letters from the court reporters indicating that the court reporters had still not been paid for the preparation of the transcripts and, accordingly, had not completed the transcript production. Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules provides that Appellant "make satisfactory arrangements (including agreement regarding payment for the transcript)" within the time provided for ordering the transcript. Because Appellant has failed to make satisfactory arrangements, this appeal is dismissed.
