1 PROCEEDINGS

2 WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2024

3 CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

4 ***

5 (The following proceedings were held in open
6 court. All parties were present.)

7 **

8 THE COURT: Go ahead.

9 MS. D'ANGELIS: Your Honor, Mr. Holmes is 10 here on three counts of unlawful conduct towards
11 a child, Indictment numbers 2022GS0700567, 2569.
12 I'm passing up the sentencing sheets as well as 13 permanent restraining orders for two of the 14 children. These two are not biologically his.15 THE COURT: Your name is Isaiah Jacob
16 Holmes?

17 MR. HOLMES: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: You need to speak up because
19 this lady right here is taking everything we say
20 to one another, okay?

21 MR. HOLMES: All right.

22 THE COURT: You're pleading to three counts
23 of unlawful conduct towards a child under North
24 Carolina vs. Alford. Is that right?

25 MR. HOLMES: Correct.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 Mr. Lewis, you represent Mr. Holmes?

3 MR. LEWIS: I do, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And you explained the possible
5 sentences these three offenses carries is 6 fifteen years that he faces on each?

7 MR. LEWIS: I have, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Have you explained to him about
9 how this Alford plea works?

10 MR. LEWIS: I have, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You have a belief that in all
12 likelihood he will be convicted on these charges
13 should he stand trial on any of these three?

14 MR. LEWIS: I believe based on the totality
15 of the evidence, a jury would be likely to 16 convict based upon the evidence, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Very well.
18 And what benefit is your client being conveyed?

19 MR. LEWIS: My client is being conveyed the 20 benefit of an agreement between us and the State
21 for a recommendation of a term of four-and-a-
22 half years, four years sentence.

23 THE COURT: That is a benefit what we'll so
24 find.

25 MS. D'ANGELIS: Your Honor, I'm sorry, just

1 to clear up, there's also three years of
2 probation to follow that. I just want to make
3 sure we're all ---

4 THE COURT: The possible sentence, it's not
5 the actual time.

6 MR. LEWIS: That's correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: That's two benefits right
8 there. All right.

9 Madam Clerk, place him under oath.

10 Isaiah Jacob Holmes,
11 having been duly sworn,
12 testifies as follows:

13 * * * * *

14 THE COURT: Thank you. Now, it's a
15 suspended version, 10, 8, whatever it is, to 16 four-and-a-half years suspended to three years'
17 probation. Did y'all determine the suspended
18 portion?

19 MS. D'ANGELIS: I'm sorry, it's eight years
20 suspended to the four-and-a-half.

21 MR. LEWIS: That's correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Probation concurrent.

23 MS. D'ANGELIS: Yes, Your Honor.

24 MR. LEWIS: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1           Mr. Holmes, in the last 24 hours, have you
2 taken any drugs, alcohol, or medications?

3           MR. HOLMES: Well, there's blood pressure.
4 I've got my medication for diabetes.

5           THE COURT: All right. You feel pretty
6 good today?

7           MR. HOLMES: Well, all right.

8           THE COURT: You're clear-headed?

9           MR. HOLMES: Yes, for the most part.

10          THE COURT: You understand what's going on 11 here and what charges you're answering to?

12          MR. HOLMES: I do.

13          THE COURT: All right. Now, there was a
14 jury trial being conducted. I don't know if you
15 were aware of that when you were in the back.

16          A jury trial was being conducted here
17 earlier. In order to plead guilty, you must 18 waive all those rights to have a jury trial.
19 Are you aware of that?

20          MR. HOLMES: I am.

21          THE COURT: Are you aware the State bears
22 the burden of proving you guilty beyond a
23 reasonable doubt? Therefore, they go first.
24 They've got to call all their witnesses and all 25 their evidence in order to try to convince the

1 jury of your guilt. Are you aware of that?

2 MR. HOLMES: I am.

3 THE COURT: Now, under an Alford plea, you
4 don't want to admit your guilt during the plea.
5 You're denying your responsibility. However,
6 you're aware of the evidence the State intends
7 to present to that jury should it go to trial,
8 and you're concerned that if the jury believed 9 all that evidence, you'd very likely be 10 convicted anyway. You're denying your 11 responsibility, and you want to avoid that, and 12 get a result that you think you can tolerate.

13 MR. HOLMES: Correct.

14 THE COURT: Now, do you believe - it's your 15 understanding that it is a benefit to you to get
16 a four-and-a-half-year sentence and a three-year
17 probationary sentence as opposed to a full 10-
18 year or a 10-plus-10-plus-10. Is that a benefit
19 to you?

20 MR. HOLMES: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Now, I'm going to ask
22 the State to give me a summary of the facts, and 23 I'm going to come back and ask you and your 24 attorney if those facts consistent with what 25 they prepared and told you they intended to

1           prove at trial?

2           Madam Solicitor, tell me what happened.

3           MS. D'ANGELIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4           So on April 16, 2002, Beaufort County
5           Emergency Medical Services responded to 184
6           Shanklin Road in Burton, Beaufort County, South
7           Carolina, for a five-year-old male having a
8           seizure.

9           The child was transported to Beaufort
10          Memorial where it was discovered that he also 11          had a broken jaw. The five-year-old was also 12          found to have multiple bruises on various parts
13          of his body that were consistent with being hit
14          by either an extension cord or a belt. Law
15          enforcement learned that there were other
16          children in the home as well, the male victim's 17          sisters.

18          Upon arrival to the residence to perform a
19          wellness check, law enforcement observed the 20          girls also had multiple bruises and that
21          appeared to be consistent with an extension cord
22          or belt, and they were also transferred to BMH
23          to be assessed.

24          Law enforcement made a decision to arrest
25          both the mother and the defendant, who was in a

1 parental role for two of the children and the 2 biological father of one of them. Multiple
3 items were found in and around the house that 4 were in reach of the children and could have
5 been caught -- and could have caused them harm
6 included loaded firearms, unloaded firearms, and 7 medication and an insulin needle.

8 The children were all given forensic
9 interviews where they claim the defendant
10 physically punishes them. All three children
11 said the defendant has punished them with his 12 fists, a stick, and extension cords, and so that 13 they had been hit in the butt, legs, heads, and 14 stomachs.

15 The kids also disclosed that defendant had 16 taught them how to use firearms and he left them
17 around the house unsecured and within their 18 reach. The defendant is the biological father
19 of one of the children and has been living with 20 all three since the beginning of 2022.

21 For a prior record, Your Honor, in the past
22 ten years he has a disorderly conduct from 23 Georgia in 2016 and a 2018 firearm carried
24 without a license from Pennsylvania.

25 I also have statements from the DSS agent,

1           who's, you know, the children are currently in
2           DSS custody. If your honor would like to read
3           them, I believe the defense had an objection to 4           that.

5           THE COURT: So, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Holmes,
6           those facts outlined by the Solicitor, are those 7           facts consistent with what y'all were told they 8           intended to present at trial?

9           MR. LEWIS: That is correct, Your Honor.

10          THE COURT: Same question, Mr. Holmes?

11          MR. HOLMES: Yes, sir.

12          THE COURT: All right.

13          Now, as I understand the benefit of an
14          offer, you don't admit your guilt, but the state
15          could submit that testimony and you don't 16          challenge it.

17          And, that's one, you have to be confirmed a
18          benefit. I understand the benefits will be a 19          certain, more or less a resulting sentence of 20          eight years suspended to 54 months, which is 21          four-and-a-half years, followed by a 36-month
22          probationary supervision term. All three
23          sentences run concurrently. Permanent
24          restraining orders will be issued on the two 25          children which are not the two that you're

1           biologically connected to. Other than that
2           resulting sentence, was anything else promised
3           to you to get you to plead guilty here today
4           under Alford?

5           MR. HOLMES: No, sir.

6           THE COURT: Have you had ample time to 7           speak to your attorney, Mr. Lewis, about your 8           plea, your rights to trial, your rights under an 9           Alford plea? Have you had enough time?

10          MR. HOLMES: Yes, uh, yes.

11          THE COURT: I want to make sure you're 12          comfortable because he's right there.

13          Do you need to talk to him for a few
14          minutes more? I'm going to give you the few
15          minutes right now. Okay. So have you had ample
16          opportunity to speak with him?

17          MR. HOLMES: I would like to talk to him
18          some more.

19          THE COURT: To him? Then you can sit back
20          in the back if you can. We'll stand down until 21          y'all get that done.

22          That should determine whether or not I'm 23          going to do it. If you all work it out, I'm 24          good with it. So that's not a judge's question.

25          MS. D'ANGELIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

1           (Discussion off the record between attorney
2 and defendant.)

3           THE COURT: Have you had enough opportunity
4 to speak to your attorney Mr. Lewis about your 5 plea here today?

6           MR. HOLMES: Yes, sir.

7           THE COURT: Are you satisfied? Have you
8 understood your conversations with him?

9           MR. HOLMES: I did.

10          THE COURT: This is kind of a new question
11 for me. You wouldn't know that but in cases
12 where the facts can be bad, lawyers have a
13 responsibility of saying these facts aren't
14 good, client. Here's my advice considering 15 these bad facts.

16          Those are difficult conversations. In 17 spite of this being a difficult conversation, as 18 I imagine it was, in spite of the difficult
19 conversation you have with your attorney, are 20 you still satisfied with the advice and counsel
21 he has conveyed to you?

22          MR. HOLMES: Yes, sir.

23          THE COURT: As a result of his advice and 24 counsel, you now enter this plea on North
25 Carolina vs. Alford freely and voluntarily.

1 MR. HOLMES: I do.

2 THE COURT: Regarding indictments 22GS07,
3 indictments 567, 568, and 569, the Court finds
4 Isaiah Jacob Holmes made a free, knowing, and
5 intelligent plea on the North Carolina vs.
6 Alford to three counts unlawful conduct toward a
7 child. He's entered this plea with the advice
8 of counsel of the attorney on whom he states
9 while under oath he's satisfied and understood.
10 The State has provided facts which if considered
11 by a jury, it would create a substantial
12 likelihood of his conviction.

13 Mr. Holmes also has been conveyed a benefit
14 in that all three sentences will run concurrent
15 with one another. He gets credit for any days
16 he served pre-trial, pre-plea. He also gets a
17 negotiated four-and-a-half-year sentence active
18 with eight years suspended to 36 months of 19 probation.

20 The Court believes it would be a further
21 assignment to non-biological children
22 restraining orders. And I understand the 23 defense is not challenging that either.

24 MR. LEWIS: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else before I

1 start the Order and sentencing sheets?

2 MR. LEWIS: Briefly, Your Honor. We would
3 ask that sentencing be delayed until the end of 4 June for the plea to go forward today. I have
5 discussed this with the State. One of the minor
6 children is still local, but there is still a
7 pending ongoing DSS action downstairs at the 8 Family Court.

9 Our belief is with my client's medical 10 fragility, there could be some issues of 11 transferring him to SCDC, specifically a
12 disruption as to everyday schedule of diets as 13 well as to his medication.

14 THE COURT: Do I have the sentencing sheet
15 as to the plea?

16 MR. LEWIS: As to the plea, that would be 17 what we are asking for today to delay the actual 18 imposition of sentence until later in the 19 summer.

20 THE COURT: That's up to y'all. I don't 21 care. I'm going to sign the plea. The plea is 22 done.

23 Now, I'm not going to put that he's got in 24 the sentencing sheet y'all have to do that 25 whenever you get the plea put up.

1 MR. LEWIS: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: So would you like me to sign
3 the restraining orders?

4 MR. LEWIS: That's fine, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Restraining orders are signed.
6 Since the Chief has signed as to the plea date,
7 which is February 28th, 2024. Good luck,
8 everybody.

9 MR. LEWIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MS. D'ANGELIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 (At 11:16 a.m. the proceedings were 12 concluded.)

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MS. DEANGELIS: Thank you, Your Honor. I
3 know we just spoke, but to sum it up for the
4 record, we are here because Isaiah Holmes
5 previously pled to three counts of child neglect,
6 unlawful conduct towards a child, the zero to 7 10-year offense, with a recommendation of eight
8 years suspended to three years.

9 MS. GAY: It's a negotiation.

10 MS. DEANGELIS: A negotiated sentence of 11 three years and three years -- eight years
12 suspended to three years and three years
13 probation. That sentence was not imposed and the 14 State is asking that the sentence be imposed. But 15 Mr. Holmes would like to withdraw his plea and I
16 believe he is looking to replace his counsel.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MS. GAY: Thank you, Your Honor. My name
19 is Melissa Gay. I represented Mr. Holmes
20 initially. He did hire Mr. Jonathan Lewis to 21 assist in this case.

22 Mr. Holmes did enter a guilty plea in 23 April. At that time, Mr. Lewis entered the plea
24 in front of the judge and different questions were 25 answered. The plea was qualified. There was a

1       deferment on the type -- the imposition of the 2       sentence.

3                 Since that time, the judge who took that
4       sentence -- who I believe is Judge Griffith.

5                 MS. DEANGELIS:  Yes, Your Honor.  It was 6       Judge Griffith.

7                 MS. GAY:  He has indicated to 8       Judge Mullen, who is the chief admin in this
9       community, that he did not want to stay involved.
10       Judge Mullen has asked and has told us that any 11       judge that's on the bench, which includes you,
12       Your Honor, would be the judge that we would go in 13       front of on this.

14                He is asking to withdraw his plea based 15       on the fact that he believes that it would 16       horribly -- a travesty of justice for him to be 17       convicted at this time, that he wanted to have -- 18       the motion is in the file -- but that he wanted to 19       have it overturned so he could then have a jury
20       trial.

21                One of the things that mattered was the 22       violent offense was dismissed against him.  The 23       solicitor has indicated that she would bring that 24       violence back and indict it to the grand jury and 25       some things like that.  These are all relevant

1 factors in this process.

2 Mr. Lewis and I both explained to
3 Mr. Holmes the consequences of his actions at this 4 point.

5 In the event that you allow him to start
6 over and withdraw his guilty plea, he then wants
7 to fire me. Mr. Holmes had a limited appearance,
8 so he's no longer -- I mean, Mr. Lewis had a
9 limited appearance. He's no longer involved in 10 it. But Mr. Holmes does want to fire me so he can 11 proceed pro se in anything else that happens in 12 this county, Your Honor. I'm not opposed to that,
13 it's just the question becomes what are we going 14 to do with his motion to withdraw the plea, and 15 whether or not he's going to be sentenced as the 16 solicitor is asking.

17 Mr. Lewis?

18 MR. LEWIS: I have nothing really further
19 to add, Your Honor. I believe that the Court
20 needs to impose sentence one way or another to 21 start appellate time clock for the defendant. The 22 defendant has made it clear that he certainly is 23 pursuing, perhaps, his avenues for PCR or direct
24 appeal. But up until this point, he's been stuck
25 in this legal quandary and gray area where he's

1       been unable to, through us, file anything because 2       sentence hasn't been imposed. Therefore, the 3       10-day time clock hasn't begun to toll.

4               So I would urge the Court today to impose
5       the sentence that had been deferred for sentencing
6       purposes to now so that that clock can begin to 7       run on behalf of the defendant.

8               I take no position as to the defendant's
9       motion to terminate this case or dismiss
10      Miss Gay's services.

11              THE COURT: All right. Anything else
12      from the State?

13              MS. DEANGELIS: Nothing from the State,
14      Your Honor.

15              THE COURT: All right. As I understand,
16      the plea was taken previously at a prior hearing
17      and accepted, and, therefore, any motion to 18      withdraw the plea is denied at this time.

19              Therefore, the Court will impose
20      sentence. The Court will accept the negotiated
21      sentence of eight years suspended to three years
22      active followed by three years of probation.

23              So that will be the sentence of the 24      Court.

25              As I said, the motion to withdraw the

1 plea is denied, and, therefore, the sentence is
2 imposed by the Court at this time.

3 Any additional motions that the defendant
4 wants to file as far as counsel can be filed at 5 the appropriate time.

6 MS. GAY: I think he wants to fire me,
7 but if he says to me, I want you to file a notice
