NOTICE OF SUPERVISORY INTERVENTION REQUESTED

Re: McIntyre v. Westwood Town Homes

Lower Court Case No.: 2025CP4204002

Presiding Judge: Hon. J. Derham Cole, Court of Common Pleas (7th Circuit)

Date of Disposition: October 10, 2025

Relief Requested: Supervisory Intervention for Judicial Inaction Regarding Emergency Relief

Court of Appeals Case number: 2025-002087

To the Honorable Justices of the South Carolina Court of Appeals:

COMES NOW, the Petitioner, McIntyre Sylecia, appearing as agent on behalf of principal Sylecia McIntyre, and respectfully requests this Honorable Court to exercise its supervisory jurisdiction over the 7th Circuit Court of Common Pleas in Spartanburg County due to the presiding judge's failure to timely rule on an emergency Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) with accompanying Rule to Show Cause, filed in accordance with the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

GROUND FOR SUPERVISORY INTERVENTION:

1. Emergency Relief Delayed Without Cause

Petitioner properly filed a TRO on October 20, 2025, citing irreparable harm, with supporting exhibits and a Rule to Show Cause directed at opposing parties who had allegedly violated prior judicial orders dated October 13, 2025.

2. Violation of Procedural Timing

Despite Rule 65(b) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure requiring expedited handling of emergency injunctive relief (typically within 10 days), the presiding judge has scheduled a hearing for November 17, 2025—over 30 days out—on the same day as a bond reconsideration hearing, with no docketed indication that a Rule to Show Cause has been issued or served upon any party.

3. Judicial Misconduct Previously Noticed

Petitioner previously submitted a Notice of Judicial Misconduct and Request for Judicial Reassignment to the Administrative Judge of the 7th Circuit. No response, reassignment, or corrective action has been made in light of the procedural delays.

4. Unheard Injunctive Relief

Prior to the lower court's dismissal on October 10, 2025, Petitioner had also filed an Amended Motion for Permanent Injunctive Relief, which was never ruled upon or scheduled for hearing. This adds to the cumulative concern regarding consistent judicial disregard for emergency and equitable pleadings.

5. Public Harm and Due Process Concerns

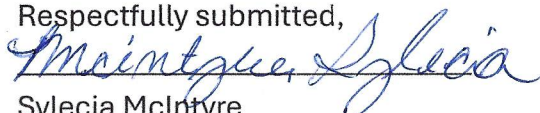

The inaction by the lower court undermines Petitioner's right to due process, places her domicile and minor dependents in ongoing risk, and erodes public confidence in the judiciary—especially when time-sensitive relief is procedurally required but intentionally delayed.

RELIEF REQUESTED:

Petitioner respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

- Exercise its supervisory authority to compel the lower court to immediately address the TRO and Rule to Show Cause, or
- Issue an order to show cause to the presiding judge as to why emergency relief has not been ruled upon within the procedural time frame, or
- In the alternative, grant leave to file an Original Writ of Mandamus compelling the lower court's action if supervisory intervention is insufficient.

Respectfully submitted,

Sylecia McIntyre

To the Clerk of the South Carolina Court of Appeals:

Dear Clerk,

Please accept this brief correction regarding my recent submission titled “Notice of Supervisory Intervention Request” dated October 23, 2025.

On page 2, under Grounds for Supervisory Intervention – Point 4, the phrase “Amended Motion for Permanent Injunctive Relief” was written in error. The correct phrasing should read:

“Amended Motion for Injunctive Relief in Lieu of Bond.”

This clarification does not alter the underlying grounds for relief or the requested action but ensures the record reflects the proper context and relief sought.

Thank you for your attention to this correction, and please attach this clarification to the filing submitted under the above date.

Respectfully,

Sylecia McIntyre
