Re: Lake Marion Resort v. Robert Davis
Appellate Case No. 2013-002006

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your Notice of Appeal, it has been noted that the transcript has not been ordered pursuant to Rule 207(a)(1) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR).

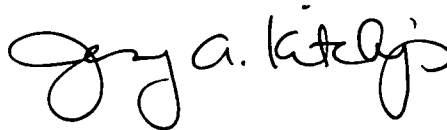

The transcript must be ordered within ten (10) days of the date of this letter and the Court of Appeals must be copied on the request. Please note you must make satisfactory arrangements for payment of the transcript and copy the office of Court Administration with your request.

Enclosed are the documents received along with the Notice of Appeal received on October 16, 2013. Any documents you wish the Court to consider along with your appeal must be designated in compliance with the Rule 209, SCACR, and included in the record on appeal according to Rule 210, SCACR.

We are also returning the Request for Extension of Time to file the initial brief. Pursuant to Rule 208(a)(1), SCACR, the initial briefs are due after receiving the transcript. Our records reflect the transcript has not yet been ordered or received, accordingly, your appellant's initial brief and designation of matter are not due at this time. To reference the general timelines in an appeal refer to Appendix to Part II, SCACR.

Very truly yours,
