*Re: South Carolina Electric & Gas v. Evva A. Anderson and Michael S. Anderson
Civil Action No.: 2008-CP-07-41113*

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

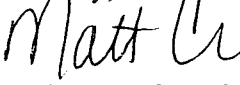

I am in receipt of the Appellant SCE&G's Motion To Remand to Recreate the Record Due to a Lost Transcript regarding the above matter on appeal. I represent the Respondents in this matter and we join in the Appellant's request to allow reconstruction of the record. This was a brief trial in which three witnesses testified. We are certainly hopeful that we will be able to recreate the record in a manner which will allow meaningful review on appeal.

Also, I am continuing to reach out to the court reporter through counsel which she has secured in the hopes that all this time later she might locate the missing transcript. In the event that the transcript is located, the parties would notify the court immediately.

Should you need any further information from the respondents, please do not hesitate to contact me. By copy of this correspondence to counsel and the trial Court, I am notifying them of our communication.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

Matthew V. Creech
