Petition

Now Comes the petitioner Albert Siders petitioning to this Honorable Supreme Court of Appeals; for a rehearing; pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule, Rule 221 (a); for this Honorable Court to review the issue that was misapprehended and overlooked that was presented on appeal; on the ground that trial Counsel was ineffective for failing to conduct an adequate pre-trial investigation into matters of defense, here the Appellate Counsel misapprehended and overlooked the appellate issue presented on appeal; See the rehearing Argument (1) outlined on the particularity point that was overlooked, and misapprehended as a matter of law that affected the appellate appeal.

Argument (1): Particularity Point

Misapprehended And Overlook

Appellate contends that his appellate's attorney and the Court misapprehended and overlooked the appellate's issue that was properly presented and on the PCR level and on appeal; about trial Counsel was ineffective for failing to object to investigating pre-trial matters into the Prosecutorial Misconduct; which the petitioner's appellate counsel fail to raise this pre-trial matter of investigation; where trial Counsel was ineffective for failing to object to the prosecutorial misconduct in the tampering with the video evidence for failing to object to pre-trial matters of investigation into the prosecutorial misconduct claim in regard of tampering with the video evidence. See PCR Tr. P4 lines 1-4 where the appellate submitted an amended PCR application asserting the claim of prosecutorial misconduct for tampering with the video evidence: also See PCR Tr. P.6 lines 15 in support thereof. See the PCR final judgment on page 2 where the Court Order addressed the Prosecutorial Misconduct Claim based on such presented on the claim of trial Counsel ineffectiveness for failing to object to the Prosecutorial Misconduct; such presented of this claim of Prosecutorial Misconduct was properly presented through the Courts level that was misapprehended and overlooked based on the character circumstance around this Claim of the Prosecutorial Misconduct was misapprehended and overlooked. The petitioner pray that this Honorable Court grants a rehearing to review this Prosecutorial Misconduct Claims on its merits as a matter of law therein.
