Subject: I received by mail the respondents brief which didn't include the "destination of matter" and the caption reads appellant appellant rule 267 of the (SCACR ) doesn't give any information concerning such caption. And I wasn't inform of this matter. Also I'm requesting information on how many days would I have to respond to the brief, because it's very clear that this court doesn't follow court procedures or threaten the privilege one "respondents"as I was threaten to have this case dismissed for not following court procedures Benjamin Moses
