Re: State v. Sincere Jamal Owens, Appellate Case No. 2012-213550

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On August 28, 2013, I asked that his case be held in abeyance pending receipt of a missing transcript from a hearing in reference to a motion to reconsider sentence. On November 12, 2013, I received that requested transcript. In reading this requested transcript, however, I became aware of a prior hearing on a motion to reconsider sentence held on May 29, 2012, before the Honorable Craig Brown. We now need to order the transcript from this hearing and unfortunately ask that this case remain in abeyance. I requested the missing transcript today and have attached a copy of the transcript request. I respectfully request that the time limits remain in abeyance pending receipt of that transcript. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kathrine H. Hudgins
Appellate Defender
