Re: Your case

Dear Mr. Russell:

On September 5, 2013, we sent you an appendix with the transcript and necessary PCR documents.

Enclosed with this letter are the additional documents you requested on October 24, 2013 and their status. They are:

- 1) Proposed order granting PCR relief: we are unable to locate this document and its cover sheet.
- 2) The Summary Judgment cover sheet dated August 3, 2011 is attached.
- 3) The Default Judgment cover sheet dated August 27, 2010 is attached.

Other miscellaneous cover sheets are also attached.

- 4) The Rule 59(e), SCRCF motion and your hand written attachment are included with this letter.
- 5) The Motion for Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts is in the package you sent to us earlier. We are returning this complete package to you, the cover sheet for this motion dated November 18, 2011 is also in your package.

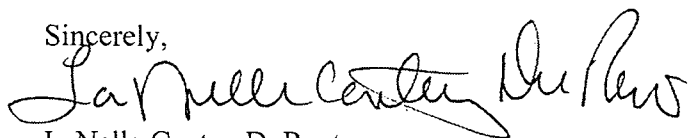

The Supreme Court instructed in their order that we provide the PCR documentation to you for you to compile your appendix. Once you compile your appendix, you are to send it to us along with your petition for writ of certiorari and we will make copies and file them.

The Supreme Court informed us that your filing deadline is January 7, 2014.

To allow us time to complete our task, could you please send the appendix and petition to us by December 30, 2013.

I wish you the best. Please call if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Re: WARREN Russell

10/24/2013

I am in receipt of your last letter, appreciate your corrections

- 1) All cover sheets signed by Attorney on the following motions
 - (A) Proposed order granting PCR Relief
 - (B) Summary Judgment
 - (C) Default Judgment

To clear up any dispute regarding pro-se, the cover sheet fix that once and for all. There are no pro-se motions

2) SCRCP, Rule 59(d)(E) Motion with cover sheet and petitioner hand written Attachment SCRCP Rule 60(b)(3) Motion, all which was filed by counsel with specific reference to SCRCP 60(b)(3)

3) Motion for Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts filed by counsel with cover sheet signed November 18 2011, Subject Matter jurisdiction.

That would respectfully cover all omissions and misrepresentation of motions properly before the courts

Thank You.

A.S.A.P

Please inform me on when I can expect this corrected documentation.
