Re: The State v. Ray E. Chestnut
Appellate Case No. 2013-001768

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Clerk,

I am in receipt of your letter dated August 29, 2013, which I've received on September 4, 2013. In your letter you stated that review of my notices of appeal were deficient and to be corrected within ten (10) days of your letter. However, you alleged that I provide the court with a copy of the orders being appealed, and for me to format my notices of appeal pursuant to the rules found on your website. Nevertheless, I don't understand clearly what specific orders that I must provide the court with a copy of; would this be my sentencing sheet? Also, I regret to inform you that I am unable to format my notices of appeal pursuant to the rules found on your website, as I do not have access to your website to see what the court format for notice of appeal. Therefore, I hereby request a copy of this court's rules so that I may bring my notices of appeal in the proper format.

Thank you for your time. I trust you understand. I look forward to hear back from you soon. Please take note, it may be necessary for an extension of time to correct the deficiencies in this case.

Truly submitted,

Ray Edward Chestnut
