Dear Ms. Harrison:

I am in receipt of preliminary notice of oral argument for the March 2026 term of court with regard to the above-referenced appeals. I currently have a mediation scheduled for March 3, 2026, but can reschedule that mediation if that is the only date that works for oral argument. I would, however, respectfully request that the oral arguments in these appeals be scheduled on separate days, if possible, during that term. I obviously do not have an objection to the arguments in both Blake appeals being scheduled on the same date.
