

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

David Hayes and Brooks A. Hayes, Respondents, v.

Miranda Mitchum, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2025-001820

ORDER

On October 21, 2025, Appellant moved to stay the September 29, 2025 circuit court order pending the appeal. On October 22, 2025, this court temporarily granted Appellant's motion to stay the eviction and money judgment and remanded the matter to the circuit court for an expedited hearing on Appellant's motion to stay and determination of any appeal bonds for the eviction and money judgment.

On October 27, 2025, Appellant filed a motion titled "Emergency Motion to Waive or Stay Bond and for Review of Lack of Personal Jurisdiction," seeking to "waive and stay" any requirement for a supersedeas bond during the pendency of the appeal.

On November 10, 2025, this court construed Appellant's October 27, 2025 motion as a petition for rehearing of the October 22, 2025 order, explaining the petition for rehearing would be considered by a panel in due course. See Rule 241(d)(2), SCACR ("Upon the issuance of a final order by an individual judge or justice, an aggrieved party may petition the full appellate court for review of that decision.").

After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.
