Re: Ann Peets v. South Carolina State Ethics Commission; Appellate Case No. 2025-002064

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please accept this letter as Appellant's request for a 30-day extension of the deadline to file Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, originally scheduled to be filed on Wednesday, December 10, 2025. Appellant's counsel faces significant professional obligations in the period surrounding the current deadline, including multiple filing deadlines and a scheduled appearance on a dispositive motion in federal court. Moreover, the holiday season presents further scheduling challenges. Appellant's counsel has conferred with Respondent's counsel, who consents to this request.

This is Appellant's first request for an extension, and if granted, the new due date for Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter would be January 9, 2026. Should this calculation be incorrect or should the Court require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

A check in the amount of $50.00 for the required filing fee is being forwarded to your attention via U.S. Mail.

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings
