Ms. Orr,

In addition to pro se filings with the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, Mr. Ray E. Chestnut (2025-001447) is writing letters and attempting to submit pro se motions with the Horry County Clerk to be heard in Circuit Court. Am I correct in understanding that all of his motions should be directed to the Court of Appeals at this time, as he has an appeal pending? I am not handling the appeal, but I want to make sure that the correct court is receiving his letters and that the Circuit Court is not scheduling motions if they are improperly filed.

Regards,

Josh
