Case No: 11-ALS-04-0455-AP

Michael Wallace,

appellant,

vs.

South Carolina Dept. of Corrections,

Respondent.

Motion For Leave To Proceed

In forma Pauperis

I, Michael Wallace, the undersigned appellant, am an inmate in the South Carolina Dept. of Corrections. I have no money with which to pay the filing fee required by this Honorable Court. I am indigent.

I believe the decision rendered by Judge McLeod was clearly erroneous, arbitrary and capricious and that the Record on appeal gives proof of it. I have a state created liberty interest in the good time arbitrarily taken from me.

The S.C. Legislature made provisions for a state inmate to file three (3) cases per year in the Admin. Law Court without payment of the filing fee. I believe the same should apply here.
