Re: John Baccus v. Perry Correctional Institution
Appellate Case No. 2013-002298

Dear Counsel:

The Court received a copy of your correspondence addressed to the Clerk of Court for Greenville County which contains a request for information. The Court of Appeals does not have an active appeal in your name. If you would like for the Court to construe your filings as a notice of appeal, you must cure the following deficiencies within ten days or your appeal may be dismissed.

- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $100.00.
- You have not properly identified the order that you are appealing and attached a copy.
- You have not attached a proof of service that is substantially in the format provided in appendix C of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
- The notice of appeal is not substantially in the format provided in appendix C of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
