RECEIVED

Ms. Vanderhall,

Dec 12 2025

I am the court reporter from your hearing on June 5, 2025.

SC Court of Appeals

Based upon my records in this matter, it appears this transcript would be approximately 20-25 pages long. As such, a deposit is necessary in the amount of $106.25 (25 pages x $4.25 per page) in order to finalize your request.

The deposit can be paid by money order made out to me and mailed to me at the address below or by Venmo to @Krys413 (last four digits of phone is 7551 if it asks). Once I receive the deposit, I would then produce the transcript and send it to you. Any overpayment would be refunded to you by the same method in which you paid.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you,

Hello, if I am indigent and unable to afford the cost of the transcripts is there anything I can do? I was told there was a form I can fill out, what form is required?

Also, will the court of appeals accept an electronic/recorded version of the transcripts?

Smith, Krystal J. Nov 13

Good afternoon,

Yes, the Court of Appeals will accept electronic PDF. No recordings though. Official record is the transcript. However, all transcripts must be paid for. There are no exceptions or paperwork to fill out for free transcripts.

Please let me know if you have other questions.

Hello is there a way to pay for the transcripts other than Venmo and that will allow you to receive the money faster than mailing a money order?

to me ▾

Good evening,

Regular delivery is within 60 days. Since it is rather short, I hope to have it done quicker than that, but I do have some in front of you, and we have to do them in order. I will keep you updated.

Thank you,

In January sometime or at least after Christmas. As long as Court of Appels knows it is ordered, they will wait for it.

Re: Alisha Davis v. Latausha Vanderhall
Case Number 2025-CP-20-00070

Ms. Vanderhall:

This is to confirm that I received your deposit in the amount of $106.25 for a transcript from a hearing dated June 5, 2025, in the above-referenced case. I received your deposit on November 24, 2025. As such, I have 60 days from that date to produce the transcript or file an extension with the Court of Appeals.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you,

Krystal J. Smith
