

HYDE
LAW FIRM, P.A.

Max T. Hyde, Jr.

December 15, 2025

Via email – ctappfilings@sccourts.org

RECEIVED

Dec 15 2025

SC Court of Appeals

Court of Appeals
ATTN: Ms. Kitchings, Clerk of Court
PO Box 11626
Columbia, SC 29211

RE: First Class Barbers LLC v. Douglas Family Partnership, LLP (2025-002312)

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

By way of this letter, Respondent takes the position that there have been no valid filings in this appeal because no attorney has made an appearance, and Mr. Bennett cannot represent First Class Barbers, LLC. The Court informed Mr. Bennett of this in its letter dated November 18, 2025. Mr. Bennett has not corrected the items referenced in the Court's letter of that date. For that reason, the Respondent contends that Mr. Bennett cannot file motions in this matter and that the appeal must be dismissed. If the Court deems the motions to be validly submitted, the Respondent reserves its right to submit a return. In addition to the absence of an attorney, First Class Barbers, LLC has not corrected the Notice of Appeal as required by the Court.

Sincerely yours,

Max T. Hyde, Jr.

Cc: Ortagus Bennett-via email