PROOF - Cont.

Hereof - Applicant shows his due-diligence within seeking the PCR Evidentiary Hearing Transcript/s. Currently - Further He has asked the Supreme Court to grant a MOTION allowing him to recieve these/those from the State of the lower Court transcript - Court reporter. The US Supreme Court ruled on this issue (enseekment) and thereof recognized that a appellant is entitled to transcript/s and the state must provide them free (no-cost), if he shows the need and cites he cannot afford them! This is recognized and ruled by the Court within the Case - Griffin V Illinois, 351 US 12, 20, 76 SC 585, (1956). See - Roberts V State, 275 SC 341, 271 SE 2d 115, (1980).

Thereof - Please Acept this Pleading to the Court and Court's Clerk showing appellant's due-diligence and his steps completed within seeking PCR Evidentiary Hearing Transcripts of the date of December 14, 2021 -- PCR Judge R. Lawton McIntosh - Lexington County.

Respectfully Submitted,
