CASE NO: Case No. 2011-CP-32-01010

Dear Ms. Jordan:

On July 8, 9 and 10 2013, the above case was tried before R. Lawton McIntosh, Circuit Court Judge, in Lexington County.

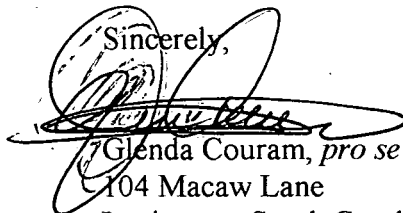

I request that you provide me with the transcript of the proceedings. Please transcribe the entire record [except for the following parts:

- 1) Selection and swearing of the jury;

You have not provided me with the exact cost but an estimate. It take someone like me time to come up with such an amount. I needed the exact cost in order to gather the monies for the transcript. You refused to grant me that request. So, I will make the initial payment of $1000.00 on or about October 16th, 2013, and, the balance of $545.00 on or about November 16th, 2013. I am sending a copy of this letter to the Appeals court, so they will be aware of the situation. I understand you have 60 to possibly 90 days to complete the transcript.

As I have stated, I believe you have overpriced the transcript but what will be will be. I am sending this letter as the agreement regarding cost as required by Rule 607, SCACR. (I did not receive the response from you until on or about September 4, 2013)

Sincerely,

Glenda Couram, pro se
