Mr. Major,

I write regarding service of filings in PlanetONE Packaging, LLC v. American Pharma Machinery, LLC, et al., Appellate Case No. 2025-000490.

From the outset of this case, I have consistently served documents by mail, with receipts and tracking where available. However, Respondent has repeatedly asserted non-receipt based on internal issues associated with its P.O. Box, resulting in recurring disputes regarding service despite Appellant's diligent mailing efforts.

In addition, service by mail has proven unduly slow for both parties. Respondent has served filings exclusively by regular mail, which often results in delivery several days after mailing, and I likewise experience significant delays in receiving mailed documents. These delays complicate deadline calculations and unnecessarily burden the appellate process.

Accordingly, to avoid further service disputes and delays, I respectfully request that both parties agree to effect service by email only for all filings going forward.

Please let me know by return email whether the Respondent will consent to email-only service going forward. Or else I can file a formal motion with the court.
