Sorry, I misspoke.

Judge Singleton is still a party to this case, Represented by Jim Logan. I believe Jim Logan needs to be served.

In the motion to disqualify Jim Logan from representing Judge Singleton, the court, determined that the state would be added as a party, represented by the state Attorney General's office. Never was there in order removing Judge Singleton as a party.

I personally have found this confusing throughout this litigation. Perhaps the court can clarify if Judge Singleton was ever removed as a party, and if so when.

Thank you,
Jason

Dear Court,

Jim Logan is a party to this case. He is not served on the proof of service.

Thank you,
Jason
