Re: George Glassmeyer v. City of Columbia
Appellate Case No.: 2013-001880

Dear Ms. Allen:

I have received your correspondence dated November 14, 2013 indicating that no brief has been received in the above case. This correspondence is inconsistent with your letter dated November 12, 2013 (enclosed).

The parties have agreed that transcripts of the summary judgment arguments are not necessary for inclusion in the Record on Appeal. Additionally, Appellant filed a timely Initial Brief and is preparing a motion to include the attachments in the Record on Appeal. An amended Initial Brief and Motion will be filed within fifteen days of November 12, 2013 as directed.

Please contact me if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

W. Allen Nickles, III

Dear Counsel:

Our records indicate that the transcript in the above matter should have been ordered. As of today's date, we have not received any information indicating that the court reporter has been contacted for the transcript. Further, you have not notified us that you have failed to receive the transcript, nor have we received your initial brief.

If you have not yet ordered the transcript, Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires you to contact the Office of Court Administration. The address for Court Administration is as follows:

South Carolina Office of Court Administration
1015 Sumter Street, Suite 201
Columbia, SC 29201

Be sure to copy the Court and opposing counsel with all correspondence concerning the transcript.

Please advise the Court of the status of the transcript within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or your appeal may be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

Re: George Glassmeyer v. City of Columbia
Appellate Case No. 2013-001880

Dear Counsel:

Enclosed is the Initial Brief, Designation of Matter and Proof of Service you filed in the above case.

The initial brief cannot include attachments absent court order. Rule 208, SCACR. Your attachments may be better suited for inclusion in the record on appeal and designation of matter if they meet the requirements of Rules 209 and 210, SCACR.

Please file an Amended Initial Brief, Designation of Matter and Proof of Service within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
