Dear Mr. Moorehead:

The Court received your correspondence on November 10, 2025. Our records do not reflect that an appeal by you is pending in this Court. You may refer to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules for guidance on how to file a notice of appeal. According to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, a notice of appeal must include the name of the court from which the appeal is taken; the judge's name; the lower court docket number; the date of the order being appealed; a statement of when the appealing party received the decision from which the appeal is taken; the name of the appealing party; and the names, mailing addresses, and telephone numbers of all attorneys of record and the names of the party or parties represented by each. A copy of the order being challenged on appeal and a certificate of service showing the notice has been timely served on all respondents.

These rules are now available at <https://sccourts.org/resources/judicial-community/court-rules/>. No further action will be taken on your filing.

Very truly yours,
