

To the Clerk of Court of S.C. Court of appeals, in the transcript the incidents are clearly out of the appropriate sequence from Appellate's actual trial. The first "Motion" presented was, The "Motion to Suppress evidence", by Appellate's counsel, Matthew Niemiec, which the evidence for this action is pg. 37 Lines 5 - 11. In the index the "Motion to Suppress Evidence" is called Argument by Defense counsel on illegal search and seizure of vehicle.

I wrote you all to validate the merits of the "Motion to suppress evidence", was most definitely raised during Appellate's trial, which is being hidden or overlooked.
