Mr. Robert Graham - ~~et al~~ #178039, Appellant,
v. Rule 11, SCRPC

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Re: case No. 2025-002411 Respondent
Subject: Appellant's Personal Declaration, Affidavit To: Chief Judge.

In support of pending (motions), 28 U.S.C. A 174b

I Mr. Robert Graham certify under the penalty of perjury the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge, belief and experience consistent with the record "exhibits" and Cathy Harris' Affidavit. Verbatim.
This affidavit points the court's duty attention to the 'landslides' of abuse of discretion by SDC for weeks denying appellant access to BRCJ mailroom, holding mail received Dec 2, 2025 from the court clocked at BRCJ Dec 10, 2025. And not giving to appellant until Dec 16, 2025 Plagiarism, breach, clear preventing his 'free speech' and ability to successfully litigate and timely effectuate due process rights of procedural and substantive claims on their merits be fore this court.

Standard of Rule 11

In re Board, 359 S.O. 351, 357, 597 S.E.2d @ 350 et. Appeal, 2004 is where appellant prose, is basing the "crux" and gist of all motions be fore this court and judge.

It has the jurisdiction in accordance with the facts presented, one (1) clear proof's of reprisals, retaliation suffered, injuries, two (2) The complications the abuse of discretions provides respondent to get away with gaining "factual unlawful" advantage over a prose litigant who sits under their authority, and he has to depend upon them to allow him access to and from classroom timely three (3) He's being denied access to [mailroom] because of lack of security, always locked inside the dorm / room due to no infraction or fault of his own making denying him fundamental due process secured known protected liberty, freedoms, rights the bed rock of jurisprudence.
