MOTION:

Due process requires that the State furnish to whom cannot afford them - Court Records, or and Transcripts needed to appeal to the State - appellate - Court. E.g. - Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585 (1956).

It could not and would not the State i.e. - S.C. Office of Appellate Defense from providing the appellate with the lower Court Records) and bounded - as set in the S.C. Appellate Court Rules set forth in Rule 243 S.C.A.C.R.. Further - to provide the adequate copies - i.e. One unbound copy for the Court, one bounded copy for the State and one bound for Appellate and his record, as set in Rules of Appellate - procedure.

Therefore, Appellate Court (order) the Office of Appellate Defense to provide assistance in prepare the lower Court Records) to Appellant, to allow adequate - appeal.

The office of Appellate Defense has also already agreed to provide the Appellant with the needed P.C.R. evidentiary hearings) transcripts to ensure an adequate appeal and - holds the equipment and ability to easily provide the above to Appellant.
