I mailed the payment it will be there tomorrow according to UPS. I think I know what happened. Each time the court of appeals emails me it's from a different person with a totally different name.. I think the last time it may have been the new woman that spoke with me. I thought I had covered all basis I as I ask about the fee and they said no. But either way I hope this one is accepted as I was so luck to get that letter today.. if there are any other Mailings from the court please please use the same email adresss of Ctapfillings of A standard address if possible.. I am so very dependent on the notifications and need to be sure I

Comply so my pleadings go through.. i sure am grateful right now to the Lord for making that letter surface on the last day and giving me the money when I needed it in emergency like this one.. Please Please let me know if there is anything else I need to do.. I will do whatever it takes to comply.. I apologize for callin so much but usually someone answers right away.. here is the mailing sticker at ups... it should be there tomorrow.. if any problems I will hand deliver and drive down to Columbia and bring the money.

To the Court of Appeals,
Please accept this emergency submission of supporting evidence.. Over the weekend there were may new activities that need to be submitted to the court of appeals. The activity supports the Appeal and I would like to send it in as supporting evidence in addition to the Petition for Rehearing and Rehearing En Banc. I am trying to submit this information as an emergency submission due to the length of time that has passed prior to the discovery.

Thank You,

Joe Adams
