Good Morning,

It appears that a hearing was inadvertently scheduled in a matter that had been sent to the Court of Appeals—the Estate of Edith M. Ryles.

We have a letter dated October 29, 2025, indicating that the remittitur would be sent; however, as of today, we have not received it. The parties requested a hearing, and I was advised by the Associate Probate Judge to schedule the hearing, not realizing that the remittitur order needed to be received first.

My question is whether the Order has been signed at this time. If so, would you be able to email me a copy prior to the hearing scheduled for 11:00 a.m. today?

Thank you for your assistance.

Thanks,

Dana M. Poston

NOTICE TO ALL ATTORNEYS AND PRO SE LITIGANTS: In an effort to streamline the Court processes and to be more efficient, all documents required for scheduled hearings must be properly filed with the Probate Court no later than seventy-two (72) hours (three (3) days) prior to the scheduled hearing. Electronic submissions will not be accepted. If the required documents are not received by the requested deadline, the scheduled hearing will be administratively cancelled. For all hearings before the Probate Court, the moving party must schedule a court reporter to avoid the hearing being continued.

The Honorable Jesse S. Cartrette, Jr., Florence County Probate Court Judge
