Re: Richard Smith v. Dr. Srikanth Pilla
Appellate Case No. 2024-000925

Dear Mr. Smith:

The Court received your request for clarification regarding exhibits on appeal. As the appellant, you are responsible for filing all exhibits and documents designated for inclusion in the record on appeal by both parties. If an exhibit is capable of being reproduced on a sheet of paper, you should include it in the record on appeal. For your reference, we have included an appeals chart. Rule 210 sets forth the requirements for preparing the record on appeal.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
