RE: Norge L. Gonzalez Torres, Appellant v. World Fiber Technologies, Inc. and The Standard Fire Insurance Company c/o Travelers, Defendants, Appellate Case No.: 2012-213610

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This case is set for oral argument December 12, 2013. My client asked to terminate our attorney-client relationship in August. I sent a letter to the Court on August 23, 2013, notifying the court of my intent to submit a Petition to be Relieved. I sent the petition to Mr. Gonzalez asking him to sign the petition acknowledging his request. I received the signed petition on or about September 23, 2013, and forwarded the petition to the Court. Yesterday I checked with the Court on the status of the motion and was informed that it had not been received. I also checked with opposing counsel and they informed me they did receive a copy of the motion. I am not sure why the Court did not receive the motion but in order to cure our defect I am submitting the motion to the Court along with this letter of explanation.

I advised my client of his rights and obligations and he wishes to proceed with termination. In conformity with my clients wishes I am filing a motion to be relieved as counsel. By a copy of this letter and motion I am notifying opposing counsel.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

Pursuant to Rule 264(b), SCACR, C. Daniel Vega requests an order removing him as counsel for the appellant. In accordance with the rule, this motion is being served on the adverse party (through its attorney) and on the appellant personally.

The grounds for withdrawal are that the appellant has terminated the attorney-client relationship and expressed his desire that attorney Vega cease representing him. Attorney Vega has advised appellant of the impending nature of the appeal but appellant insists on being relieved. This is confirmed by appellant's signature, which appears below.

This matter is currently scheduled to be argued in December 2013. Because argument has been scheduled, the court may wish to require the appellant to respond to this motion by notifying the Court whether he would like the opportunity to secure new counsel to present argument, or, whether he would prefer the case be decided on the briefs.
