Good afternoon,

We have a site inspection in another case, and they are looking at February 5, 2026, as a possible date. However, we are holding that date as well as a handful of other dates for possible Oral Arguments in the above referenced matter. Would you be able to tell me if February 5, 2026, is still on the table as a possible date for the Oral Arguments or if we are free to open that date up for the site inspection in our other case? Thank you so much.
