

Clarifications of appellant filing

State

v

Keyshon Poinsette

Appellant Case No.2025-002592

Dear Clerk,

Good day.

I am writing in response to correspondence from this Court indicating an assumption that documents were filed on my behalf by a third party. This appears to be a misunderstanding.

All filings in this matter were prepared, signed, and submitted by me, the Appellant. No third party has filed any pleadings or documents in this case. I am Hadi Bey. The lower court record reflects that I was identified and addressed as such during the proceedings. There is no dispute as to my identity or standing before the Court.

In an abundance of caution, and solely to avoid any delay in the appellate process, I have resubmitted an updated Notice of Appeal and Service of Process.

Accordingly, the Appellant respectfully requests that the Clerk accept and docket the previously submitted filings and docket them accordingly or in the alternative accept the resubmitted filings nunc pro tunc to the original submission date.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

Appellant,

/S/ Kpoinsette
