Re: Edward Hall v. SCDC
Appellate Case No. 2013-001966

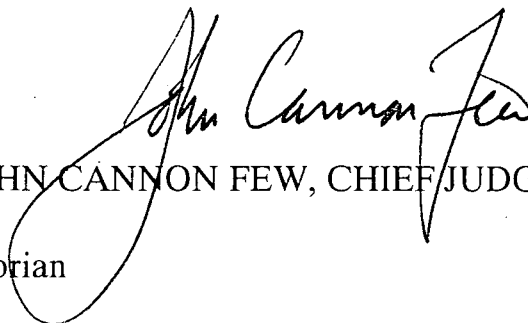

Dear Mr. Hall:

This is your second deficiency letter. If you fail to correct these deficiencies within ten days of the date of this letter, we may dismiss your appeal, or your document may not be considered by the Court.

Upon reviewing your motion to proceed without payment of costs and your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- The proof of service provided does not specify which document it pertains to. You must provide proof of service to the Administrative Law Court for the motion to proceed without payment of costs and the notice of appeal. Additionally, the proof of service must list all the parties required to be served. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,
