1           A     If we could see in the bag, I mean it
 2           probably -- from the last I viewed it in May, it was
 3           not. Some of it was liquid. But, again, I'm not
 4           looking through a bag, you know. I see the envelope
 5           right now.

6           Q     I'll hand it up there, if that helps you.

7           A     I still can't see through it.

8           Q     Well, can you feel it and tell me whether
 9           or not it's in the same form as it was back in 2011
 10          when you first examined it?

11          MR. ROSS: Objection, Your Honor.

12          THE COURT: All right, I am going to 13          sustain the objection. I think she testified that
 14          the second time she saw it, it was not in the same
 15          form as it was the first time.

16          So what is it today doesn't really matter,
 17          without opening it up. She's already testified that
 18          the second time that she saw it, it was in a
 19          different form. Isn't that correct?

20          MS. CONRAD: Yes.

21          THE COURT: All right.

22          MR. FLOYD: Thank you. I have no further
 23          questions, Your Honor.

24          THE COURT: All right, Mr. Ross?

25          MR. ROSS: Judge, may I approach first?

CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL FOR APPELLANT

Counsel for appellant certifies that this Second Supplemental Record on Appeal contains all material proposed to be included by any of the parties and not any other material and that this Record on Appeal complies to the best of my ability, with the August 13, 2007, order from the South Carolina Supreme Court entitled "Interim Guidance Regarding Personal Data Identifiers and Other Sensitive Information in Appellate Court Filings."
