SC Court of Appeals

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Samuel T. Collins, Jr., Steward Trustee
Appellant,

v.

West Palmetto Holdings, LLC,
Respondent.

Appellate Case No.: 2025-002352
Lower Court Case No.: 2024-CP-14-00368

EMERGENCY MOTION TO STAY PENDING APPEAL

(and, in the alternative, for Administrative Stay and Expedited Consideration)

Appellant Samuel T. Collins, Jr., respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Rule 221 and Rule 262, SCACR, for an Emergency Stay Pending Appeal, and in the alternative for an Administrative Stay and Expedited Consideration, and states as follows:

1. Relief Requested

Appellant requests an order staying execution and enforcement of the Writ of Ejectment dated February 6, 2026 (attached as Exhibit A), for the limited purpose of preserving the status quo while this appeal remains pending before the Court.

In the alternative, Appellant requests a short Administrative Stay sufficient to allow the Court to consider this motion on an expedited basis.

2. Emergency and Irreparable Harm

The writ is subject to immediate execution. If enforced, Appellant will suffer irreparable harm through the forced alteration of possession and displacement of the status quo before appellate review can be meaningfully exercised. Once executed, the harm cannot be fully remedied by later appellate relief.

3. Pending Appellate Jurisdiction

This case is currently pending before the Court of Appeals. The appellate docket reflects that the appeal remains active and is awaiting preparation of transcripts. Enforcement of the writ at this stage risks frustrating appellate supervision and rendering review ineffectual.

4. Jurisdictional Conflict Warranting Immediate Restraint

The writ of ejectment was signed by a magistrate despite the matter having proceeded through the Court of Common Pleas and now resting in appellate jurisdiction. Magistrate courts in South Carolina are courts of limited civil jurisdiction, including a $7,500 jurisdictional ceiling. Appellant raises this issue solely to place the Court on notice of a non-discretionary jurisdictional concern supporting immediate restraint pending review.

5. Balance of Equities and Public Interest

A stay preserves the existing condition of the parties and avoids irreversible harm. The opposing party suffers only delay, while Appellant faces immediate and permanent disruption. The public interest favors orderly appellate process and respect for jurisdictional boundaries.

6. Limited Scope of Request

Appellant does not seek a ruling on the merits of the underlying dispute at this time. The requested relief is narrowly tailored to maintain the status quo until appellate review can proceed.

7. Requested Order

Appellant respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Stay execution and enforcement of the February 6, 2026 Writ of Ejectment pending further order of the Court; or
2. In the alternative, enter a temporary Administrative Stay and order expedited consideration of this motion; and
3. Grant such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Samuel Tucker Collins Jr.

Notice of Pending Appeal and Supervisory Conflict – Request for Supervisory Review Prior to Enforcement
Notice of Pending Appeal and Supervisory Conflict – Request for Supervisory Review Prior to Enforcement

Sheriff Baxley / Civil Process Division,

EXHIBIT C

I write in my capacity as Steward Trustee to provide formal notice and request supervisory review prior to any enforcement action concerning the referenced Writ of Ejectment.

This correspondence is not intended to obstruct lawful process. Its purpose is to ensure the Sheriff's Office has actual notice of a supervisory and jurisdictional conflict that bears directly on whether execution at this time may cause irreversible harm and expose the executing authority to post-execution challenge.

NOTICE OF PENDING APPEAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFLICT

1. Pending Appeal / Superior Court Jurisdiction

The matter underlying the writ is presently pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals, under Appellate Case No. 2025-002352. The appellate docket reflects that the appeal has been accepted and remains active, currently awaiting completion of the record (appearing as “waiting on transcripts”). Jurisdiction has therefore attached in the superior court.

2. Nature of the Order on Appeal

The ruling under appellate review is the Order of the Court of Common Pleas, not an active proceeding before the Magistrate's Court. The magistrate matter was concluded, and the current appellate posture concerns the Common Pleas judge's ruling now under review by the higher court.

3. Limited Jurisdiction of the Issuing Magistrate

Magistrates in South Carolina exercise limited subject-matter jurisdiction, including a monetary ceiling of $7,500 in property-related matters. Issuance of execution affecting possession of property interests exceeding that jurisdictional limit, particularly after the matter has moved through Common Pleas and into appellate review, raises a jurisdictional question that warrants supervisory consideration before enforcement.

4. Effect of Immediate Execution

Execution of ejectment at this stage would irreversibly alter possession and the status quo, potentially impairing the appellate court's ability to afford meaningful review. Once possession is lost and property removed, the injury cannot be undone by later order, even if appellate relief is ultimately granted.

5. Notice and Supervisory Discretion

This notice is provided so that the Sheriff's Office is aware of the above circumstances prior to acting. Where notice of a jurisdictional or supervisory conflict exists, execution undertaken without review may later be characterized as wrongful—not because of intent, but because of the effect of acting after notice.

REQUEST

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the Sheriff's Office pause enforcement or elevate this matter for supervisory review before proceeding, so that execution does not occur in a posture that could later be challenged as impairing appellate jurisdiction or exceeding lawful authority.

I remain available immediately to provide verification of the appellate docket, copies of the relevant filings, or to respond to any request for clarification.

This notice is provided in good faith, with equitable respect, and solely to ensure that enforcement decisions are made with full awareness of the present procedural posture.

Respectfully,

By: Samuel Tucker Collins Jr.
