Re: Jeter v. State. 2025-000762

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am filing today with this letter the Initial Brief and statement regarding Designation of the State and Attorney General Wilson. I wish to note that Appellant's Designation includes unspecified "email correspondences." Because of that lack of specificity, the State cannot determine whether the emails would be proper parts of the Record on Appeal under the Appellate Court Rules. Therefore, the State reserves the right to move to strike from the filed Record on Appeal any emails not properly included in the Record.

Respectfully,

s/ J. Emory Smith, Jr.
Deputy Solicitor General
