Clerk Harrison—Good afternoon. As the attached letter explains, I represent the Appellant in this case and Russell Patterson and Harrison Williams represent the Respondents. Both are copied on this email.

We have settled this case today, and you may please cancel the oral arguments that were scheduled for noon tomorrow. We will be filing a Dismissal With Prejudice in the circuit court promptly.

We all thank you, your staff and the Court and their clerks, for your time. We are all happy to have resolved this matter amicably.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best always.

Tom Taylor
