Re: The State v. Juana A. Guevara-Frutos
Appellate Case No. 2026-000282

Dear Mr. Guevara-Frutos:

I am writing at the request of the South Carolina Court of Appeals. I sent you a copy of the Notice of Appeal on February 9th. As stated in the Notice of Appeal, I am “not aware of any meritorious issues to be reviewed on appeal” because (1) there was a factual basis for your guilty plea, and (2) the judge sentenced you to probation – that is, a sentence within the permissible sentencing range for felony animal cruelty. I am also enclosing another copy of the appeal notice with this letter.

I am also enclosing a letter that I received from the Court of Appeals. They ask for you to write them to explain the basis for your appeal and any issues that you believe are preserved for appellate review. Put differently, they are asking you to explain what legal errors were made in your case that you want to appeal. You have twenty (20) days from the date of this letter to explain. Please send your letter to the below-listed address:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

Hadden Lucas
Assistant Public Defender

The State,

Respondent.

v.

Juan Albert Guevara-Frutos,

Appellant.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Juan Albert Guevara-Frutos appeals his conviction and sentence in this case. The Defendant pled guilty to two counts of felony animal cruelty on January 29, 2026 and was sentenced to three years suspended to three years of probation. The Defendant's case was not yet indicted and he waived indictment to proceed with the guilty plea. Several days after being released from jail, the Defendant contacted his attorney to request the filing of an appeal. Counsel is not aware of any meritorious issues to be reviewed on appeal. However, as Mr. Guevara has a right to appeal his conviction and has requested that an appeal be filed, I am therefore filing this appeal.
