v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent

Petition for Time Extension

Now comes the Appellant before this Honorable Court petitioning this Court for time extension to reply to State's Response Brief, which by rule is 10 days. The Appellant asks for this extension for the following reasons.

Due to lockdown, control movement, and long delays of receiving mail it is impossible to receive mail, reply, and prepare in the 10 days dead line. Example below:

1. On October 24th, 2025, the ALC issued its order and arrived at the institutional mailroom on November 3rd which was received by Appellant on November 12th, 2025.

2. This Honorable Court assigned the case No: to this case on December 10, 2025 and mailed to the Appellant, who did not receive this until December 17th, 2025.

We have addressed this issue with the warden about mailroom delays.

Appellant hereby requests a grant of this petition for any relief as this court deems proper.

Respectfully submitted,
