SC Court of Appeals

Jeffery Adrian Simpson

Appellant

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections

Respondent

Appellant case No. 2026-000102

MOTION FOR EXTENSION

The appellant hereby move before this court to request for an extension of that which concerns this courts February 26, 2026 correspondence that which was issued per the South Carolina court of appeals deputy clerk of court, Jasmine D. Smith. However, the February 26, 2026 correspondence to the appellant is of an deficiency in itself based on the fact that a filing fee of $ 250.00, was not a required standard when the South Carolina court of appeal chief deputy clerk of court, Catherine S. Harrison, had issued a docket No.: Appellate Case No. 2026-000102.

On the 23rd day of January 2026, The South Carolina court of appeals chief deputy clerk of court had provided of and all parties, thus advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules see Exhibit 1). The requirement that of Rule 267 SCACR do not require a filing fee. Furthermore, the South Carolina Court of appeal chief deputy clerk of court Catherine S. Harrison, had admonished that the appellant's notice of appeal upon review had involved deficiencies and ordered the noted deficiencies to be corrected within ten days of that correspondence; that was issued per the Chief Deputy clerk Catherine S. Harrison to the appellant that 23rd day of January 2026, regarding Appellate case No. 2026-000102 see Exhibit 1).

The appellant indeed timely obeyed the South Carolina court of appeal chief deputy Catherine S. Harrison January 23rd 2026, correspondence with respect to the noted deficiencies therein. The appellant indeed filed per a February 5th 2026, motion to inform the South Carolina Court of appeals see Exhibit 2), thereby obeying the directives regarding a rectification that which the chief deputy clerk of court Catherine S. Harrison, had noted as deficient there in the appellant's notice for interlocutory appeal within the time frame of 10 days as ordered per the chief deputy clerk of courts January 23rd 2026 correspondence However, the South Carolina court of appeals deputy clerk of court Jasmine D Smith is without jurisdiction thus to order the appellant to pay a filing fee and placing a time limitation of 10 days see Exhibit Q).

Wherefore the appellant request an extention and the tolling time for brief and motion to be considered by this court to be reinstated. The appellant hereby request of the time for filing briefs pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule..

Appeal from the Administrative Law court, Hon. S. Phillip Lenski

Case No. 25-AIJ-04-0705-1J

Jeffery Adrian Simpson

Appellant

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections Respondent

Appellant Case No. 2026-000102
Motion to inform the court

The Appellant hereby respond to this Honorable court clerk January 23 2026 correspondence, in which the Honorable clerk had instructed the Appellant to include a statement of when a written notice of the order from which this appeal is taken and likewise provide a proof of service showing that a copy of this appeal has been served upon the Administrative law court, see (Exhibit C). However, The Appellant notice of Interlocutory appeal now before this court do provide therein a legal statement with respect to a opportunity to develop discovery regarding a interlocutory remedial judicial determination see (Exhibit P). The matters do concerns a interlocutory remedy that which the Appellant is entitled pursuant to S.C. code ann § 1-23-610(B). Furthermore, as stated within the notice of Interlocutory appeal, that the Administrative Law Judge December 30, 2025 order of dismissal regarding the Administrative Law Court docket

No 25C0705, is indeed results from a premature summary judgment motion see (Exhibit T) and Exhibit T.1

wherefore this response was deposited into the Turberville Correctional Institution mail room on the 29th day of January 2026

Respectfully Submitted
