RE: Lisa Summer Rice, et al. v. Newberry Lions Club and Betty Amick, et al.
and A. Murray Gray v. Betty Amick, as Personal Representative – Appellate Case No. 2025-000497

Dear Clerk Kitchings:

I attach herewith the request for extension to file the Record on Appeal until April 1, 2026, by letter dated February 24 (copy attached).

I attach herewith a copy of our check payable to the South Carolina Court of Appeals for this extension request.

I am leaving to go to Cluj, Romania, early this Wednesday morning (March 4) and returning to the office on March 16 for a longstanding Pro Bono teaching assignment at a law school there. I very much appreciate this extension. If you have any questions or need further details, please advise. My paralegal understood from her conversation with your office today that sending the $50 fee for the extension was all that was required at this point. Thank you very much.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

POPE PARKER JENKINS, P.A.

RE: Lisa Summer Rice, et al. v. Newberry Lions Club and Betty Amick, et al.

Dear Clerk Kitchings:

We just filed our Reply Brief of Appellants on February 17, 2026, and the deadline for submitting the Record on Appeal is March 19, 2026. I have a longstanding engagement to teach at a law school in Cluj, Romania (Pro Bono), departing March 4 and returning to the office on March 16.

Since I will be out of the office for over eight workdays before the Record on Appeal needs to be filed, I will be pressed to meet that deadline. I have communicated with counsel for the Respondents, Mary Caskey, Esquire, and Biff Sowell, Esquire, and they have agreed to consent to an extension up to April 17. Attached are their emails signifying their consent.

I would request that you grant me an extension until April 1, 2026, to file the Record on Appeal. If a formal motion and/or a filing fee is required, please advise. Thank you very much.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

POPE PARKER JENKINS, P.A.

The Record on Appeal is due for filing at the Court of Appeals by March 17.
I am going to Cluj, Romania to teach next Wed and will be gone March 4 to 14.
I cannot leave this for Betsy , as of course Kyle and I will need to review it carefully .
Will you consent for us to file it by April 17 ? (we can probably do it by April 1).
Thanks.
