12. How do I obtain a transcript?

13. Pursuant to Rule 207 and 607 of South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the transcribed paper copy is the official Record of court proceedings. Any party or attorney representing a Party, who is interested in obtaining a transcript from a court Proceedings held in Circuit or Family Court must complete the Transcript Request Form, SCCA 800, to order the transcript. If the Requestor is a non-party, the court reporter must obtain permission from the court in order to produce the transcript. You may request a transcript by completing the form online or in hard copy and returning it via postal mail.

14. On information and belief, Transcripts are not available for proceedings in Municipal, Magistrate, Master-in-Equity, or Probate Courts. If you would like to order a transcript of a proceeding that was held in Circuit or Family Courts, for each hearing that you would like a transcript for, you must complete the SCCA Form 800 in its entirety. If you are ordering the transcript for a consecutive, multi-day trial, you only need to use one form.

15. On information and belief, to complete the Transcript Request Form, you will need the following information on hand:

Transcript Information

- Court type (A - Circuit or B - Family)

received the transcript from the court reporter late. Enclosed herewith please find the original and one copy of the Following:

21. On information and belief, The Supreme Court has ruled on issues related to the violation of audio recordings of court hearings, emphasizing the importance of maintaining the integrity of court proceedings.

Key Points:

- Court Recordings: Audio recordings of court hearings are official records that must be preserved and accurately reflect the proceedings.
- Judicial Conduct: Judges are expected to uphold the law and ensure that court procedures are followed, including the proper handling of audio recordings.
- Violations: Instances where judges violate protocols regarding audio recordings can lead to disciplinary actions or appeals, depending on the severity of the violation.
- Legal Precedents: The Supreme Court's decisions often set precedents that guide lower courts in handling similar issues, reinforcing the need for transparency and accountability in judicial processes.

The Hon, Brian M. Gibbons Civil Case NO. 2025CP2000275,

22. “The Court take judicial notice that In South Carolina, jurisdiction, or the basic authority of a judge to hear and exercise Judgment of a matter is based upon three considerations: territorial jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction, and the amount in controversy, ($100,-000.

Territorial jurisdiction for each magistrate extends throughout the county in which he is appointed in both civil and criminal matters.

To understand the latter two determinations of jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction and amount in controversy, one must look to S.C. Code Ann. §§ 22-3-10, and 22-3-20. Section 22-3-10, as limited by § 22-3-20, sets out magisterial jurisdiction over fourteen areas of civil subject matter as follows:

1. Actions on contracts for the recovery of money, where the claim does not exceed $7,500.00.
2. Actions for damages for injury to rights pertaining to the person, or personal or real property, where the damages do not exceed $7,500.00.
3. Actions for a penalty, fine or forfeiture, not to exceed $7,500.00.
4. Actions commenced by attachment of property, as provided by statute, where debt or damages do not exceed $7,500.00.
5. Actions upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money, not exceeding $7,500.00, whether the money is due in sum total or in installments;
6. Actions upon a surety bond taken by the magistrate, when penalty or amount claimed does not exceed $7,500.00.
7. Actions upon a judgment rendered in magistrate's court when it is not prohibited by the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

8. Taking and entering judgment on the confession of a defendant in the manner prescribed by law when the amount confessed does not exceed $7,500.00.
9. Actions for damages or for fraud in the sale, purchase, or exchange of personal property, not to exceed $7,500.00.
10. All landlord and tenant matters, as well as those included in Chapter 33 through 41 of Title 27, encompassing matters of leasehold estates, rent, ejectment of tenants and undertenants of life tenants.
11. Actions to recover the possession of personal property, whose stated value does not exceed $7,500.00.
12. In all actions provided for in this section when a filed counterclaim involves a sum not exceeding $7,500.00.
13. In interpleader actions arising from real estate contracts for the recovery of earnest money, only if the sum claimed does not exceed $7,500.00.
14. In actions for damages arising from a person's failure to return leased or rented personal property within 72 hours after the expiration of the lease or rental agreement, such damages to be based on the loss of revenue or replacement value of the property, whichever is less, if the damages claimed does not exceed $7,500.00; However, the lease or rental agreement must be set forth in which the amount of the loss of revenue or replacement value of the item leased or rented is calculated.

23. Sherer v. Cullen , 481 F 946. We could go on, quoting court decision after court decision, however, the Constitution itself answers our question ♦ Can a government legally put restrictions on the rights of the American people at any time, for any reason?

The answer is found in Article Six of the U.S. Constitution: Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 426, 491; 86 S. Ct. 1603 "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no 'rule making' or legislation which would abrogate them."
