This surely looks like the payment was mailed I'm so glad I took a pic for proof .I don't like being accused of not doing something when I know I did it. I had already spoken to Ashi Thompson and she knew it was on the way and said she would make a note of it. I have no control of the mail system

Next time get a portal where people can pay online then you wouldn't have this problem now if you don't want the payment let me know and I will kindly try to put a stop payment on it.

Thank you

Best Regards

Good morning

That isn't correct the check was mailed don't go accusing me of not doing something if you had a payment for online it would've been paid but since you have to depend on the mail system what else is there for you to do now when you get the check then I don't want to here oh we apologize but we did receive it. So now I will put a stop payment on the check if it's not to late.
