Good afternoon Mr. Norville.

I want to give you an update on your transcript challenge. I am halfway through this transcript and the majority of the inaudibles are correct thus far. There are several instances of individuals shuffling papers over the microphones and/or moving the microphones. When this happens, it muffles the person who is speaking to the point where I personally cannot make out what they are saying.

I am sorry to say that I will not complete the challenge process before the 19th.

Thank you,

Dear Tammy:

In light of this unsatisfactory result, we will be proceeding with a transcript challenge. Please respond to this email with a timeline regarding when a new transcript of this trial with complete audio and time stamps will be provided. We will need to provide this timeline to the Court in our abeyance motion.

Thank you for your assistance.

Subject: [External] RE: 2024-001830 The State v. Nathan Miles Ginter TRANSCRIPT CHALLENGE

Kaylynn,

We knew this was going to be a very difficult transcript. The transcriber spent countless hours going through this audio to ensure we captured every audible word possible. Legal Eagle also updated the SCCID while the transcript was in production to be sure they were aware of the issues.

The audio files that were provided to Legal Eagle are MP4 video files with no notes. The video files do not provide any times; so, timestamps are not possible. Additionally, the examples of transcript formats provided by the SCCID to Legal Eagle have the Exhibit page after the index. We followed that template as instructed.

Legal Eagle has made the following changes to the transcript:

- Updated the title page with the court name and location.
- Page 71: The jury pool was excused by the judge not the selected jury for the trial. We removed this parenthetical.
- Page 84: Court's exhibit 4 and 5 are merely mentioned. They are not described or put into evidence by the judge. They were not included in the index for that reason.
- Page 188: Date was corrected.
- Page 259: S-88 was added to the index.
- Page 302: S-85 & 86 were added to the index.
- Page 337: Date was corrected.
- Page 377: Date was corrected.

- Page 387: Certification language amended.

At this time, Legal Eagle has nothing further to add to the transcript and will defer to the SCJB's review of the audio and transcript. Thank you.
