Dear Ms. Reibold:

We have already discussed this, but I understand I am required to submit a more formal written document and payment for the record. ... Accordingly:

On April 13, 2012, the above Motion was heard before the Honorable Joseph M. Strickland, Master-In-Equity, in Richland County; and you were the court reporter for that Motion Hearing.

I request that you provide me with a transcript of that proceeding. As required, I have asked that you provide the transcript for the entire hearing record, and I am enclosing with this letter a money order for the initial deposit/down payment according to our agreed payment arrangement. I understand and agree that you will provide the subject transcript following receipt of the final payment.

Sincerely,
