Kay Howell Jordan, Marion Howell Tolson,
and Lewis Virgil Howell, ..... Respondents,

SC Court of Appeals

v.

Betty L.S. Judy, ..... Appellant.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

TO: THE HONORABLE CHIEF JUDGE AND ASSOCIATE JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF SOUTH CAROLINA:

The appellant respectfully moves for an additional thirty-day extension of time, to and including December 23, 2013, for service and filing of her initial brief and designation, for the following reasons.

1. The appellant was represented at trial by Robert F. McCurry, Jr., Esq., of the Orangeburg County Bar. Mr. McCurry associated the undersigned for the purpose of handling the appeal, including preparation of the appellant's brief and designation.

2. This is a boundary line case involving conflicting surveys. The recency of the undersigned's association, together with other appellate and office work in progress, have made it difficult to complete this work in the allotted time.

3. An additional thirty-day extension, to and including December 23, 2013, will provide ample time to complete the work.

4. The appellant therefore moves the Court for an extension of time, to and including December 23, 2013, for service and filing of the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter.

2013

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Jordan v. Judy
Case No. 2013002129

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

By letter dated October 21, 2013, I earlier sought a thirty-day extension of time for the appellant's initial brief and designation.

Because of the recency of my association in the case, and the press of other appellate and office business, I find that I must request an additional thirty-day extension. Enclosed is a motion seeking that relief.

Thanking you, I remain

Yours very truly,

James B. Richardson, Jr.
