Respondent,

v.

Latausha Vanderhall

Appellant,

Appellant, Latausha Vanderhall, respectfully moves this Court for an extension of time to file the Appellant's Brief the above-captioned matter. In support of this motion, Appellant states the following:

1. Appellant is proceeding in this appeal pro se and is currently handling all aspects of the appellate process without legal representation.
2. Appellant is also disabled and has been working diligently to understand and comply with the procedural requirements of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
3. Appellant was under the belief that notification would be sent by the Court Of Appeal 's advising when briefing would be due. Appellant recently learned at the end of last week that the Appellant's Brief was due on March 11, 2026.
4. Appellant is currently compiling and organizing the Record on Appeal and reviewing the transcript and orders from the magistrate and circuit court proceedings in order to properly prepare the Appellant's Brief in compliance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
5. Due to the complexity of the issues involved in this case, including questions regarding subject matter jurisdiction and procedural errors in the lower courts, Appellant requires additional time to adequately prepare the brief. This matter involves complex issues including disputes regarding property ownership and questions concerning the jurisdiction of the magistrate court and the affirming of the circuit court, which require careful review of the record and supporting documents before the Appellant's Brief can be properly prepared.
6. This request is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court grant an extension of thirty (30) days from the current deadline in which to file the Appellant's Brief.

Respectfully submitted,
